"ANTI-LYNCHING PLANK"

Was it Put in Platform to Protect Henry Johnson.

K. Foster Murray in News and Courier.

Chicago, June 14. —Yesterday evening during the proceedings which ratified the choice of Henry Lincoln Johnson, the Atlanta colored politician, as Republican national committeeman for Georgia, there came near being physical altercation between various members of the North Carolina delegation, which is composed entirely of white men, and the colored members of the Georgia delegation, including Johnson himself.

The North Carolina and Georgia delegations adjoin each other on the convention floor, and nowhere among the whole body of the delegates is the election of a colored national committeeman by the Georgians more bitterly resented than by the North States contingent.

Someone wittily suggested that the "anti-lynching plank" was put in the platform to protect Henry Lincoln Johnson.

MANY FREE ATTRACTIONS IN DARLINGTON JULY FIFTH

Darlington for many years prior to 1918 when the war interfered, enjoyed an enviable reputation for its annual celebration and horse show, with races, on the Fourth of July.

The Chamber of Commerce, leading business men and citizens of Darlington have determined that the celebration to be held there on Monday, July 5, this year, shall far eclipse anything ever before attempted along that line by Darlington, and it is expected the city will be thronged with visitors to revel in the pleasures and entertainment features provided for them.

Probably the best part of it all is that there will be absolutely no charge for any of the numerous special amusement features. Even the two picture shows will be open to the public, entirely free, from morning until late at night.

There will be a spirited game of baseball in the morning, to open the day's festivities, between the best and fastest teams available—free to all.

Early in the afternoon there will be an excellent card of races at the local track, with purses large enough to attract the best horses in this part of the South—and here will be no admission charged.

Contracts are now out for several amusement attractions, such as, are featured at the State fair, and these will be announced later—all free.

The Columbia Brass Band of 25 pieces will furnish music all day, and at night the Columbia Orchestra will provide music for the gala street carnival and dancing—all free.

Governor Cooper and Hon. Skottow Wannamaker are expected as guests of the city for the day, and the people of Darlington want every man, woman and child to feel that a personal invitation is extended to be present and enjoy the good things of the big day—and remember that everything is absolutely free.

Weekly Crop Notes for South Carolina — Week Ending June 12.

Conditions generally favorable for all farming operations and growing crops have shown seasonal growth and development.

Corn — Crop from one to two weeks late. Stands fairly good. Color excellent. Plant growing nicely.

Wheat — Harvesting has extended to extreme northern counties. A large percentage of the acreage in other sections has been "housed" in fair to excellent condition.

Oats — Three-fourths of the crop has been harvested, reported yields being highly satisfactory in most instances.

Rice — Prospects in coastal counties rather promising.

Cotton — Chopping practically completed, except in widely distributed sections where weather conditions have been unfavorable. Fields are generally well cultivated and plants have shown decided improvements.

Potatoes — Greater portion of the commercial crop of Irish potatoes has been harvested and marketed at most excellent prices. Transplanting of sweet potatoes continued.

Tobacco — Weather conditions favorable and plant is making seasonal growth.

Hay — Stubble lands are being sown to cowpeas for hay but the scarcity and high price of seed will mean a reduced acreage as compared with former years.

Apple and peach crops promising. Early varieties of peaches ripening rapidly and shipping is well under way, quality being up to or above the average.

Live Stock — No serious epidemic reported. Beef cattle scarce. Milk cows appear to be more plentiful. Pastures good.

WORKMAN PAINFULLY BURNED.

Short Circuit Ignites Gasoline and Mechanic is Severely Burned on Arms.

Dewey Anderson, foreman at Rogers Garage, was painfully burned Monday afternoon when a short circuit ignited a can of gasoline while he was working underneath a car. If it had not been for the fire extinguishers near at hand Mr. Anderson would have received burns which might have resulted fatally. Mr. Anderson was working on a big touring car and was lying flat on the floor under the motor. He was testing the wire connections and a spark ignited a can of gasoline which he had been using in cleaning the machinery. The flaming gasoline jumped to his bare arms and would have enveloped his whole body if some one with presence of mind had not seized a fire extinguisher and turned it upon him. His arms were badly burned before the flames could be extinguished, and while his burns are painful, they are not serious. The woodwork, paint and top of the car under which Mr. Anderson was working were damaged to some extent.

Nujol

REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

For Constipation

To Keep Your Health—

you must regard Nature's laws; and one of the first of her laws is "Avoid Constipation".

Nujol works on an entirely new principle. Without forcing or irritating, it softens the food waste. This enables the many tiny muscles in the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along and out of the system.

It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Try it.
